When will China's Hainan free trade port open?

VCG China's Hainan Free Trade Port (FTP) will officially begin island-wide independent customs operations on December 18, 2025, marking a major milestone in the country's push for higher-level openness, according to a press conference on the development of the port held by the State Council Information Office on Wednesday.

What is the Hainan FTP law?

Once an underdeveloped frontier outpost, Hainan became China's largest special economic zone in 1988. A master plan released in 2020 set the goal of developing the island into a globally influential, high-level FTP by the middle of the century. The Hainan FTP Law has been implemented to provide a legal guarantee for the port's development.

What is the Hainan FTP's island-wide independent customs operation?

"The island-wide independent customs operation is a flagship move for the development of the Hainan FTP and a key measure to further expand opening-up," Wang said, calling it "a milestone" in China's opening-up efforts.

What is Hainan FTP?

The United States-based commercial data and analytics firm registered a company in the Hainan FTP in 2022. "We aim to establish a data hub in the Free Trade Port, with Hainan as the center for aggregating global data and building a digital economy ecosystem oriented toward the world," Wu said.
