

The OPSB today authorized Fountain Point Solar Energy LLC to construct a 280 megawatt (MW) solar-powered electric generation facility in Bokescreek Township in Logan County.

Meridian Township has a goal of obtaining 100% of the electricity for Township operations from renewable energy by 2035. The Township has solar arrays on four Township buildings and more are ...

One of the highlighted benefits of the Hayes Township solar project is its potential to generate substantial tax revenue, which RWE estimates to be over $15 million throughout its ...

Geronimo Power, doing business in the township as Lakeside Solar, is proposing a 150-megawatt solar development spanning approximately 1,500 acres of farmland. It will be connected to ...

The grant came about as a result of Raisin Township hosting Beecher Solar, which is a project of Next Era Energy. The project is slated to generate up to 80 megawatts of electricity by ...

$740,000 to Newberg Township in Cass County (waiting for State Administrative Board approval) for hosting Three Lakes Solar, a 148 MW solar project with an expected construction date ...

The intent of the project design is to place solar arrays and associated infrastructure primarily on undeveloped, open fields while avoiding and minimizing potential impacts to natural ...

FLINT TWP., Mich. (WNEM) - A proposal to build a 10,000-panel solar farm on a former landfill that later became recreational soccer fields is moving forward after the Flint Township Planning...

Located in mid-Michigan's Pine River Township, the 80-megawatt renewable energy development has more than 180,000 solar panels and will generate enough clean energy to power ...

The township plans to use the award money to upgrade Strawberry Lake Park, a nature trail at Sands Township Park, as well as to renovate its office complex including a gathering space ...

Web: <https://capturedmoments.co.za>